

Intelligent Faith: Equipping Minds and Engaging Hearts for God's Kingdom Purposes.

College Counselor, Registrar, Director of Alumni Affairs

Duties as a Christian Role Model and Conveyor of the Gospel

The primary responsibility of any employee at Veritas Christian Academy is to profess and model faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, to evidence through word and deed a commitment to Truth as it is expressed in the Bible, and to be ready and able to clearly and authentically share the gospel of Jesus Christ with students.

Each staff member contributes to the educational process by setting an example of godliness in his personal life and relationships with others (I Timothy 4:12, Luke 6:40, Matthew 7:18, John 15:5, James 1:22-25). A staff member thereby teaches the students that a Christian's life is necessarily characterized by compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, forgiveness, forbearance, love, peace, thankfulness, self-control, and faithfulness (Galatians 5:22, Colossians 3:12-14).

Behavior and attitudes which Scripture forbids would adversely affect the education of VCA students and will not be condoned. Such moral failings include but are not limited to: hatred, malice, discord, dissension, greed, stealing, cheating, lying, slander, filthy language, coarse joking, obscenity, drunkenness, impurity, lust, adultery, homosexuality, idolatry, and murder, which includes abortion (I Corinthians 6:8-20, II Corinthians 12:20, Colossians 3:5-10, I John 3:15, Ephesians 5:3-18, Galatians 5:19-21, Romans 1:24-32, Revelation 22:12-16).

Modern churches vary widely in their teaching of sexuality, marriage, and divorce. Employees must accept the Board of Trustees' interpretation of biblical standards for sexual behavior. Therefore, all employees must agree with the following guidelines:

1. Sexual activity is to take place only within a marriage. Those who are not married must remain celibate (Matthew 5:27-28, Hebrews 13:4).
2. Homosexual activity is forbidden (Romans 1:24-27, I Corinthians 6:9-10).
3. Marriage is to be between one man and one woman (Titus 1:6).
4. Divorce and remarriage are permitted under the grounds of adultery (Matthew 5:31-32) and irremediable abandonment of a believer by an unbeliever (I Corinthians 7:10-16).
5. If the employee was the wronged party, he must have made every effort to be reconciled, involving the rightful church authority thoughtfully and obediently.
